Ann McCoy Harold

Biographical Sketch, Southwest RAC Member

Ann McCoy Harold is a freelance writer serving her first term on the Southwest RAC in Category 3, public-at-large. Harold is the fifth generation of McCoy's to call the Four Corners area home and believes "an unknown Hatfield allowed Levi Allen McCoy to leave Pikeville just to save the powder." And she's glad for that!

Harold's representation on the RAC is important to her because so much of southwestern Colorado is public land managed by the federal government. Harold feels that everything BLM does is crucial to the region's "economic and social vitality."

Harold shares that she loves the land and her neighbors, and since selling her newspaper two years ago, she enjoys the time and freedom her new lifestyle allows in serving her community as a volunteer.
